

Respiratory health in women - do we need a special focus on the female respiratory system?

Tuesday 8th March 15:00 – 16:00 CET

Chaired by Arzu Yorgancıoğlu, ERS Advocacy Council Chair and Anita Simonds, ERS Past President

15:00-15:10 Welcome and introduction
Arzu Yorgancıoğlu, ERS Advocacy Council Chair
Anita Simonds, ERS Past President

15:10-15:35 Roundtable: What are the factors behind women becoming more susceptible and experiencing more severe disease?

Women and lung cancer

- Joanna Chorostowska-Wynimko, ERS Secretary General

Does COPD have a gender?

- Daiana Stolz, University of Freiburg

EU's role in improving women's respiratory health

- Marleen Sorensen, European Institute of Women's Health

Patient's perspective

- Niamh Cullen, European Lung Foundation

15:35-16:50 Q & A

15:50-16:00 Closing
Arzu Yorgancıoğlu, ERS Advocacy Council Chair
Anita Simonds, ERS Past President
