Annual Declaration of Interest 2022-2023

You have the following active role that requires completion of an annual Declaration of Interest:

- Listed Roles

It is a requirement for all ERS officers and members of ERS committees, working parties and sub-committees to complete an annual Declaration of Interest (DoI).

This requirement is based on Article IX of the ERS Bylaws, approved by the General Assembly in Paris 2018. Copies of the Constitution and Bylaws are on the ERS website. You are asked to read this form before completing the DoI.

Potential conflict of interest or failures to report a potential conflict of interest will be referred to the Ad hoc Ethics and Conflict of Interest Committee.

It is recommended that all potential commercial and other activities in 2022-2023 which may be construed as conflict of interest should be disclosed. If an officer is in doubt about a particular item, the Secretary General will be pleased to advise.

All officers are asked to complete and confirm the following forms by January 1, 2023.

Please complete all sections of the form.

You can start filling in the form and then leave it unconfirmed until you are able to complete all sections and confirm the declaration.

Eventually, this form must be duly confirmed even if no declaration of interest is disclosed.

The amounts of funds received are to be recorded according to the following table:

(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)
less than 1'000 EUR	1'001-5'000 EUR	5'001-20'000 EUR	more than 20'000 EUR

In accordance with the Code of Declaration of Interest, I wish to declare to the European Respiratory Society that my only interests in the pharmaceutical, medical equipment and electronic nicotine delivery system industries, and any other interests, which could potentially conflict with my work for the ERS, are as follows:
